

June

The sun is out and so is school! June is all about having fun outside and enjoying the end of the school year, but that doesn't mean the learning stops! This month, find opportunities to practice your math and stretch your brains while having fun!

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
3 	4 National Cheese Day. Say cheese! Have some cheese to celebrate today.	5 World Environment Day. Today we remember how important it is to take care of the environment. Help sort your family's recycling!	6 	7 Chocolate Ice Cream Day. You scream, we scream, we all scream for ice cream!	8 Best Friends Day. Grab your best friend and play a game like monopoly or cards!	9
10 National Children's Day. Today we celebrate kids like you! Grab your guardian and celebrate by having some fun!	11 National Corn on a Cob Day. Did you know on average there can be 800 kernels on an ear of corn? Have some corn and practice counting the kernels!	12 Red Rose Day. Roses are red, violets are blue, we hope you love math, just like we do!	13 	14 National Flag Day. In 1777 Betsy Ross created the first American Flag. Did you know the first American flag had 13 stars? How many stars does the American Flag have now?	15 	16
17 Father's Day. Show off your math skills to your dad today!	18 Go Fishing Day. Grab some cards and play go fish today!	19 National Watch Day. Do you have a watch? Practice telling time today by counting the minutes until your next activity.	20	21 National Daylight Appreciation Day. This is the summer solstice, that means today is the longest day to enjoy the sun outside! How many hours of sun did you see today?	22 	23 National Hydration Day. The recommended daily water intake should be 5-8 cups a day! Keep track and count how much water you're drinking today.
24 	25 	26 	27 National Sunglasses Day. Get the shades out and play outside!	28 National Handshake Day. Do you have a cool handshake with your best friend? Create a fun one today!	29 National Camera Day. Snap a picture of a special memory to keep it alive forever!	30

Try DreamBox Learning: where serious learning is seriously fun!
www.dreambox.com